➤ BRIEF REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME:

The strategy planning meeting hosted by Asutosh College brought together 49 MOU Collaborator colleges and 7 Spoke colleges to discuss and enhance collaborative efforts within the educational framework. The event focused on future growth opportunities, sharing of best practices, and strategic planning to strengthen the quality of education. The event began with a seamless registration process for all attendees. Dr. Manas Kabi, Principal of Asutosh College, delivered the welcome address, highlighting the importance of joint efforts in educational advancement. The felicitation ceremony honoured the Hon'ble Chief Patron Sri Saugata Roy (M.P. Lok Sabha, President of Asutosh College Governing Body, and Professor (Retd.) of the Department of Physics, Asutosh College), Chief Mentor Dr. Dipak Kumar Kar (Chairman, College Service Commission, Former Vice Chancellor, Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University, & Principal (Retd.), Asutosh College), and Keynote Speaker Prof. Dr. Ashutosh Ghosh (Professor of the Department of Chemistry, University of Calcutta and Former Vice Chancellor, University of Calcutta).

The Chief Mentor Dr. Dipak Kumar Kar's address focused on the necessity of collaboration for academic excellence. Prof. Dr. Ashutosh Ghosh delivered the keynote address, reflecting on the challenges and opportunities in collaborative initiatives as well as in the evolving educational landscape. Dr. Sraboni Roy, the IQAC Coordinator of Asutosh College, discussed the proposals of the college and the role of the IQAC in driving quality enhancement. Hon'ble Chief Patron Sri Saugata Roy shared insights on the impact of collaborative initiatives.

Principals, IQAC Coordinators and representatives from various colleges offered diverse perspectives on enhancing collaborative initiatives— emphasis was on technology integration, job placement strategies, entrepreneurship development, and improvement of research activities. Various proposals included faculty and resource sharing, student internship programmes, and community outreach initiatives. Regular follow-ups and evaluation sessions were planned to monitor progress and adapt strategies as necessary.

➤ EXPECTED OUTCOME:

1. Enhanced collaboration through joint academic and research initiatives.
2. Establish a framework for research and innovation.
3. Optimised resource utilization.
4. Synchronized planning for enhanced collaborative initiatives.
5. Periodic meetings to assess ongoing collaboration and adapt to new challenges.
