

Alumni Lecture Series

Dr. Priyank Pravin Patel

Assistant Professor Department of Geography

On 8th September, 2023.

Geography Department of Asutosh College in collaboration with IQAC, Asutosh College had organized an Alumni lecture for the benefit of under-graduation and post-graduation students on the month of 8th September, 2023. He is an alumnus of Asutosh College. Presently, he is an Assistant Professor associated with Department of Geography, Presidency University.

On that day his topic of seminar lecture was “Cartography in the Earth and Social Sciences: Maps, Methods and Motives”. His knowledge over cartography made students and faculties spell bound. He beautifully established the relationship between Physical Geography and Human Geography and the evolution of mapping from prehistoric period to modern age. Students were benefited to know that the subject Geography truly worth the title of Earth Science.
