➤ BRIEF REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME:

The Department of Geography at Asutosh College, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), is pleased to announce a special online lecture titled "Paradigm Shift in Geographical Studies: From Traditional to Modern Approaches." This intellectually stimulating session is part of the department's ongoing efforts to foster academic excellence and interdisciplinary dialogue. The lecture will be delivered by Professor Azizur Rahman Siddiqui, a distinguished scholar from the Department of Geography, University of Allahabad, renowned for his expertise in contemporary geographical studies and his contributions to the field. The session aims to explore the transition of geographical research methodologies and frameworks, tracing their evolution from conventional approaches to cutting-edge modern techniques. This event is scheduled to take place on Monday, 16th December 2024, at 11:00 A.M., and will be hosted on the Google Meet platform. It is expected to draw the participation of students, researchers, and faculty members, creating a platform for exchanging ideas and discussing the future directions of geographical research. Through this initiative, the Department of Geography seeks to inspire attendees, encourage academic innovation, and broaden perspectives on how geography as a discipline adapts to the demands of a rapidly changing world.

➤ EXPECTED OUTCOME:

Participants will gain insights into the advancements and transitions in geographical research and methodologies. The lecture aims to enhance academic understanding, stimulate critical thinking, and inspire innovative approaches in geographical studies among students and researchers.
