Brief Report:

On January 7 and 8, 2025, the first semester students of Department of Journalism & Mass Communication, Asutosh College, visited Brainware University, Barasat, along with two faculty members of the department for an academic tour. The visit was intended to provide the students of Asutosh college a practical exposure and insights into advanced facilities and techniques employed in the JMC labs of Brainware University.

The day began with an interactive lecture session about basic concepts of mass communication. After lunch break, the students were taken to multiple labs of the department.

The students visited Photography studio, three audio studios (one for recording, one for mixing and mastering, and the last one for editing), and audio visual studio. They also had Q&A session with the professors on the functioning of the equipments.

The last part of the day was marked with another seminar session on aspects and insights of filmmaking by another specialized faculty member. The students, after a day packed with learning and fun, left the campus in the evening with a broad smile & a spirit of determination to do the best in their fields.

82 students registered for the event and 70 of them have participated in the Lab Visit.
