

- Title: LIGHT AND SHADOW: SATYAJIT RAY THROUGH NEMAI GHOSH'S LENS
- Theme: Photography Exhibition
- Academic Session: 2025-2026
- Date: 21st August 2025
- Venue: The Alipore Museum, Kolkata

Objective:

- 1) To provide students with an immersive exposure to cultural and cinematic heritage.
 - 2) To bridge theoretical classroom learning with real-world experiences of visual media.
 - 3) To develop students' analytical perspectives on the representation of cinema through photography.
 - 4) To encourage reflective learning that can contribute to academic projects, reviews, and research.
- Target Audience: Students and faculty members of Asutosh College
 - Brief Report

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Asutosh College, organized a field visit to The Alipore Museum where students of the second semester, accompanied by faculty members, explored the exhibition "Light and Shadow: Satyajit Ray Through Nemai Ghosh's Lens". The exhibition, presented by DAG in collaboration with The Alipore Museum, featured a rare collection of photographs by Nemai Ghosh capturing the legendary filmmaker Satyajit Ray at work and in candid moments.

The exhibition offered a unique opportunity for students to witness the artistic synergy between cinema and photography, gaining insights into Ray's creative process as well as Ghosh's mastery of visual storytelling.

Expected Outcome:

- 1) To help students understand the importance of visual documentation in cinema and media.
- 2) To encourage critical appreciation of Satyajit Ray's cinematic legacy through Nemai Ghosh's photographs.
- 3) To connect classroom learning with real-world cultural experiences.
- 4) To inspire students in developing academic projects, reviews, and reflections on cinema and photography.

- 5) The visit successfully blended academic enrichment with cultural exposure, making it a memorable and impactful learning experience for all participants.
