The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication in association with IQAC, Asutosh College held an enriching seminar on Bollywood's Portrayal of Sports- The New Trend . The respected speaker of this seminar lecture was Professor

Shikhi Chatterjee, who with her lively energy and immense ability to capture the audience, engaged into a meaningful interaction with the undergraduate students of 2nd and 4th semester.

The session began with Dr.Priyanka Roy introducing Professor Shikhi Chatterjee ma'am. Prof. Chatterjee began her presentation after the introduction.

Throughout the seminar, she gave innumerable examples of how sports is portrayed in Indian Cinema and how massively it effects the crowd. She discussed the challenges of choosing athletics as a career in India a few years ago and how the glorification of playing sports in films has extended people's perspectives throughout the nation, inspiring thousands of youth to pursue their goals. She elaborated on the obstacles that women have to face to play sports passionately in our country, especially in the backward states. She provided examples of movies where female sports has been acknowledged and brought an astonishing change in the real world. For example – Chak De India, Dangal, Mary Kom, few of which have been inspired from real life stories have managed to uplift and empower women in various parts of the country.

She concluded representation Cinema has increased and development in sectors. She some sports are about to screens.
