

One-day Hands-On-Training Workshop on GNI Fact Check Training: Online Photo and Video Verification, in collaboration with Google News Initiative India Training Network, conducted by Mr. Pralay Laha

To equip today's youth with the tools necessary to combat the spread of fake news and to verify the authenticity of online photos and videos, the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Asutosh College, organized a "One-day Hands-On-Training Workshop on GNI Fact Check Training: Online Photo and Video Verification," on November 14, 2019, in collaboration with Google News Initiative India Training Network.

Mr. Pralay Laha conducted the workshop, showing media students how to not things at face value and determine their legitimacy using tools like Google Reverse Image Search. The informative workshop left students with a clearer picture of how to determine what is real and what is not when it comes to news.
