➤ BRIEF REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT:

The Department of Mathematics, Asutosh College organized an Experiential Learning Excursion at Alipore Museum on 18th February, 2025 to enrich the learning experience of students.

The students and teachers of the Department of Mathematics of Asutosh College visited the Alipore Museum on February 18th, 2025, near 7 Judges Court Road, Alipore, Kolkata, West Bengal 700027, for an experiential learning excursion. The Alipore Central Correctional Home is a national historic landmark located in the heart of Kolkata. This 116 year old building, along with the Presidency Jail, is on the Grade I list of heritage sites of Kolkata. Constructed in 1906, and spread over 15.2 acres, this colonial era institution abuts Tolly's Nullah and can be identified easily with its characteristic brick-red walls. Within the premises one can spot the Alipore Jail Press Building, the central watchtower, over a dozen buildings which served as prison cells and wards, and the Alipore Jail Hospital building. Notable freedom fighters who were incarcerated here include Jawaharlal Nehru, Subhash Chandra Bose, Chittaranjan Das, Dinesh Gupta, Dr Bidhan Chandra Roy to name a few. It served as a correctional home till 2019 when the inmates were shifted to Baruipur, on the outskirts of Kolkata. From being a silent witness to the brutalities inflicted on the freedom fighters of the country, the Alipore Central Correctional Home is now transformed as a memorial and museum to honour the sacrifice of those who fought for the independence of India. It serves as a testament to innovation, enriching lives and contributing to scientific advancement.

At first the students toured the museum and witnessed India's freedom struggle during the British period. The museum has display of paintings, photographs, maps of India during the various
