Report of the Guardian-Student-Teacher Meet

Date: 04.05.2024

Academic session: 2023-2024

Venue: Lecture hall - H6

Objective/ Purpose: As per instructions received from the college authority a meet was organized to have a better communication with students along with their guardians regarding problems relating to teaching/ learning and also with regard to the gradual decrease in attendance of the students in the class.

Target Audience /Participants: Students (4th and 6th semesters) along with their guardians

Brief Report about the Program: The meet was held on 4th May, 2024 at 12 noon. Students from the 4th and the 6th semester along with their parents were present. Dr. Saswati De Mondal, Head of the department, addressed the audience with her welcome speech. She also highlighted the different facilities that the college can offer to the students. Dr. Chandrima Bhar presented the different avenues which are open for students studying philosophy. Career opportunities for philosophy students were clearly outlined by Dr. Bhar. Dr. Rina Kar Dutta described the rules and regulations of the University of Calcutta with regard to attendance as well as examinations. She also highlighted the problems faced frequently in the classroom. The guardians expressed their opinions one by one regarding their wards as well as their expectations from the college. Some important suggestions were put forward by the guardians. The program came to an end with a pleasant note.
