

ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN

9th February 2024

An Educational Tour to Alipore Zoological Garden, Kolkata took place on 9th February 2024. Students from all the semesters enthusiastically joined the tour along with all the departmental faculties. The educational Tour provided students of Department of Philosophy with opportunity to learn about the basis of bio-diversity. 35 students from Department of Philosophy participated in this tour with great enthusiasm.

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide the students the opportunity of observing variety of animals and their behaviors.
- To familiar the students with the dietary practices of the animals and their daily activities.
- By participating in an esteemed educational environment enhanced our enthusiasm in the field of the subject. Hence, the impact of a joyful, cheerful and involving day was pretty positively conclusive.
