

REPORT OF EXHIBITION VISIT

- TITLE OF THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME: EXHIBITION VISIT
- THEME OF THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME: HE ATIT, KATHA KAO (হে অতীত, কথা কও)
- ACADEMIC SESSION: 2024 - 25
- DATE: 18th January, 2025, Saturday at 2:30 pm
- VENUE: Nehru Children's Museum
- OBJECTIVE/ PURPOSE: Objective of visiting this exhibition is to learn about the local history, culture, and society, including social, economic, and political changes. To immerse in our cultural heritage through exhibits, artifacts, and interactive displays. To broaden the knowledge and perspectives by exploring different historical periods and cultures. To have a fun and engaging cultural outing that provides a valuable learning experience.
- ORGANIZED BY: The exhibition was organized by Kolkata Kathokata (কলকাতা কথকতা)
- TARGET AUDIENCE/ PARTICIPANTS: Students of Semester 1 and 3.
- ATTENDANCE SHEET:

Name	Semester
Ekoparna Dey	1
Debarghya Das	1
Souparna Mondal	1
Debanjan Dutta	1
Sritama Mondal	3
Sneha Yadav	3
Shilpi Ghosh	3
Soumay Nandy	3
Ayantana De	3
Manish Shaw	3
Subhadeep Dey	3
Prosun Kotal	3

- BRIEF REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME: The exhibition provided an insightful journey through the rich cultural, social, and political evolution. Held at Nehru Children's Museum from 17th to 19th January, 2025, the event showcased the diverse heritage, struggles, achievements, and transformations from ancient times to the modern era. The colonial period was one of the most engaging sections of the exhibition, shedding light on the profound effects of British rule on Bengal. Artifacts such as early printed books, paintings, and documents were presented. Through a combination of artifacts, photographs, and informative displays, the exhibition brought to life the incredible historical journey of Bengal. It served as an educational tool for all visitors, shedding light on how Bengal's culture, politics, and social fabric have shaped not only the region but also India as a whole. The exhibition successfully highlighted Bengal's enduring legacy and its continued importance in India's national narrative, leaving a lasting impression on all who attended.
- EXPECTED OUTCOME: The visit to the exhibition can foster an appreciation for our unique history, culture, and heritage. It will provide the students with an exposure to different historical periods and cultures which can broaden their perspectives and understanding of the world. It is expected to be a social activity, fostering shared learning experiences with friends and classmates.
- GEO-TAGGED PHOTOGRAPHS:

