WOMEN EMPOWERMENT CELL
(GENDER EQUITY)

In association with IQAC, Asutosh College

ACADEMIC SESSION: 2023 - 2024

ABOUT THE COMMITTEE/ UNIT/ CELL:

Throughout history, women and queer individuals have faced systemic disadvantages due to their biological sex, a reality that must be addressed in any civilized society. The empowerment of women and the awareness of gender issues are essential for sustainable development. Asutosh College advocates for gender equity, empowering women, nurturing female leadership, and promoting holistic personal development. The institution organizes seminars, workshops, and awareness programs to sensitize students and staff about gender discrimination. Even during the current pandemic, webinars have been held with active participation. The aim is to instill the spirit of 'Naari-Shakti' through education, targeted awareness initiatives, gender sensitization workshops, relevant video sessions, and lectures by esteemed individuals. The Women Empowerment Cell addresses various aspects, from menstrual hygiene to leadership training, striving for all-round empowerment.

Since the landmark 1997 Supreme Court judgment in Vishaka & others vs. the State of Rajasthan & others, which mandated strict measures against sexual violence in workplaces and educational institutions, Asutosh College is dedicated to upholding constitutional mandates to protect against any form of sexual harassment.

The Women Empowerment Cell at Asutosh College has the following missions and objectives:

1. Sensitize students, faculty, and staff on gender issues.
2. Provide knowledge and inspiration to female students.
3. Ensure the college campus is a safe space for LGBTQIA individuals.
4. Take prompt action against sexual violence and harassment.
5. Provide a safe platform for grievance redressal on gender, sexuality, and identity issues.
6. Establish the educational institution as a sustainable model for achieving gender equity.

ACTIVITIES

TITLE OF EVENT/ PROGRAMME :

Interactive Panel Discussion: Dynamics of Interpersonal Relationships Across Institutions: Past and Present

- THEME OF THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME: The theme of the event focused on exploring the evolution and changing nature of interpersonal relationships within various institutions—such as educational, corporate, governmental, and social settings—over time. It sought to examine both historical and contemporary dynamics of human interactions, considering the impact of societal shifts, technological advancements, and cultural transformations on the ways individuals engage with each other within these institutions.
 - DATE: 09.03.2024
 - VENUE: Seminar Hall , Centenary Building , Asutosh College
 - COLLABORATOR/S: In association with IQAC, Asutosh College
 - OBJECTIVE/ PURPOSE: The discussion aimed to explore how interpersonal relationships have evolved across educational and professional institutions, emphasizing the implications for collaboration, communication, and cultural exchange.
 - SPEAKER/S / RESOURCE PERSON/S:
 1. Dr. Anupama Chowdhury - Principal, Women's College, Calcutta
 2. Dr. Debarati Chakraborty - Assistant Professor, Presidency University, specializing in Performing Arts
 3. Namrata Chakraborty - Research Scholar, University of Calcutta
 4. Pew Roy - Senior Assistant Editor, TV9 Bangla
7. TARGET AUDIENCE/ PARTICIPANTS: Students of all semesters and faculty members.

8. BRIEF REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME: An interactive panel discussion titled "Dynamics of Interpersonal Relationships Across Institutions: Past and Present" was held at Asutosh College, featuring an esteemed panel of speakers. The discussion began with a reflection on the traditional dynamics of interpersonal relationships across institutions, focusing on hierarchical structures in the past to the changing communication styles at the present. A significant portion of the discussion was dedicated to the role of technology in transforming interpersonal dynamics. The discussion emphasized the role of digital communication tools (emails, instant messaging, and video conferencing) in reshaping interactions, both positively and negatively. Topics such as gender, race, and power dynamics were addressed, highlighting the fact that changes in ethical and moral values have altered the way how individuals engage with one another in professional, academic, and social settings. The discussion was followed by an engaging Q&A session where audience members expressed their views on the evolving nature of relationships in academic and professional settings. Key questions revolved around balancing traditional values with modern practices and the impact of societal changes on interpersonal dynamics.

9. EXPECTED OUTCOME: Participants were expected to gain a deeper understanding of how interpersonal relationships across various institutions (educational, corporate, governmental, etc.) have evolved over time. It also aimed at highlighting the significance of fostering healthy interpersonal relationships across institutions. The speakers underscored the need for continuous dialogue and collaboration to navigate the complexities of modern interactions. The event aimed to spark further research and academic discussions on the topic of interpersonal relationships across institutions. Thus, in short, the expected outcomes of the event included fostering greater awareness of evolving interpersonal dynamics, providing practical tools for enhancing communication and collaboration, and encouraging a forward-looking approach to navigating the challenges and opportunities of the future.
