On March 22, 2024, a highly anticipated "ONE-DAY NATIONAL LEVEL SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM Contributions of Remote Sensing - Geographic Information System (RS-GIS) and Artificial Intelligence (AI) on opening new research sphere in Biological Sciences" was held at RKMV, Belur Math, Howrah. The event saw a gathering of students, faculties, and scientists, all eager to explore the promising advancements of biological sciences in the light of AI and GIS.

The event was a collaborative effort by the Department of Zoology of both colleges; Asutosh College, Kolkata, and RKMV, Belur Math, Howrah signed their memorandum of understanding (MOU) on January 15, 2024. The event highlighted the multifarious aspects of AI and RS-GIS in the field of biological sciences. It was inspiring to witness how the two colleges harmonized to execute the event successfully, which reflects their commitment to academic excellence and collaboration.

The proceedings for the event commenced at 9:30 AM, with an impressive turnout of over 250 attendees hailing from various renowned colleges and universities across West Bengal. Following the registration process, the day began with a serene Vedic chant performance by the students of RKMV. It was proceeded by an inspiring message delivered by the revered Swami Mahaprajnananda, Principal of RKMV, Belur Math, Howrah who shared insightful details on their meticulously designed curriculum and other engaging activities offered by RKMV. Additionally, Maharaj revered also felicitated all the delegates present at the event, adding to the celebratory and welcoming atmosphere.

During the first session of the event, the talk was delivered by Dr. Dibyendu Dutta, an experienced former General Manager and Group Director at the National Remote Sensing Centre (NRSC), Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), Government of India. The session was chaired by Prof. (Dr.) Subir Chandra Dasgupta, a distinguished former Professor of Zoology at Maulana Azad College, Kolkata. Dr. Dasgupta provided a warm welcome to Dr. Dutta and gave a perceptive introduction to the topic at hand. Dr. Dutta's presentation was focused on the cutting-edge application of geoinformatics in biological sciences and the groundbreaking advances that India has made in this area. It was clear that the first session of the event was a resounding success and set the stage for an animated and thought-provoking Q&A session. Our enthusiastic students made the most of this interactive session.

Our speaker for the second session was Dr. Arijit Bhattacharya, Associate Professor of Microbiology at Adamas University, Kolkata. He presented the exciting topic of biological applications of machine learning and AI in modern research. He shared insights on how these technologies are being used in areas like drug discovery, neural network mapping, protein-protein interaction prediction, and much more. The thought-provoking presentation was well-received by all attendees, including students and faculty members from various institutions. They asked pertinent questions that Dr. Bhattacharya addressed. Overall, the presentation was highly informative and engaging, offering a glimpse into the future of biological research.

Our final lecture session was chaired by the highly respected Prof. (Dr.) Sumit Homechoudhuri, a Professor in the Department of Zoology, University of Calcutta. He effectively introduced Dr. Bhem Dutta Joshi, a scientist C at the Zoological Survey of India in Kolkata. Dr. Dutta presented the importance of AI and GIS in wildlife conservation and monitoring. The session was truly enriching, as we observed a great deal of curiosity among the students, which led to an engaging and lively Q&A session.

Following the speaker sessions, the event proceeded with an interactive lunch and poster presentation session. A total of 70 posters were presented, covering diverse topics-

No.	Subject Area
1	Application of AI in modern-day life
2	Scope of technologies in biological sciences
3	Role of AI in patient monitoring, drug discovery, and drug delivery
4	AI-based predictive modeling for environmental & epidemiological monitoring
5	Application of AI in the field of Neuroscience
6	Application of Remote sensing & GIS in studying animal distribution, migration ecology & habitat mapping
7	GIS & AI in Agroecology, Forestry, Entomology & Fisheries Science
8	Role of AI in fish growth and health status monitoring
9	Role of Artificial Intelligence in Public Health Management
10	Remote sensing & GIS in climate change and green cover analysis, monitoring of aquatic ecosystems, and assessing changes

Upon evaluation by our esteemed panel of experts, the five best posters were awarded for their excellence, with the team from Sarojini Naidu College for Women being declared as the top scorer. The recipients of the Best Poster Awards were-

No.	Poster Name	Participants Name	Department, College
1	Augmenting Human Health with Artificial Intelligence	Aditi Basu , Adrija Sen, Anurima Gupta, Simran Sinha and Kaberi Datta*	Department of Zoology, Sarojini Naidu College for Women, Institution, Kolkata

2	Navigating the Synthetic Landscape: Detecting AI-Created Fakes in Images	Soumyadip Das , Rima Kundu, Sinjita Ghosh & Sk Mohiuddin*	Department of Computer Science, Asutosh College, Kolkata
3	Role of AI in patient monitoring, drug discovery & drug delivery	Ahanabha Sett , Saif Ali, Soumalya Naiya, Sukalyan Bisui & Paromita Roy Chowdhury*	Department of Biochemistry, Asutosh College, Kolkata
4	RS-GIS can reveal dynamics of Island Land Use Land Cover Patterns to Monitor Mangrove Forests and associated Biodiversity in Sunderbans	Prosenjit Dawn* , Punarbasu Chaudhari, Animesh Sinha, Pradip Das, Debal Ray, Milan Kanti Mandal & Anurag Chowdhury	Department of Zoology, Shyampur Siddheswari Mahavidyalaya, Howrah
5	Conservation of Fish and Fish Habitat: Role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Geographic Information System (GIS) in Sustainable Fish Growth	Abhimanyu Mahanta , Apratim Goswami, Koyena Das & Sriparna Datta Ray*	Department of Zoology, Asutosh College, Kolkata

The event concluded with an award ceremony, and certificate giving. In the last valedictory session, Dr. Sriparna Datta Ray delivered the vote of thanks on behalf of Dr. Manas Kabi, Principal, Asutosh College, Kolkata.

In the end, we witnessed students and teachers spending a day, aspiring towards a brighter and smarter future, aiming to use AI and GIS as a tool in their research. "I am so happy that the symposium has accomplished the task to show new visions and dimensions to young students who will take up research in the next decades ", said Dr. Homechoudhuri.

Biological Science is a melting pot of modern technologies. It makes use of them for the expansion of understanding the complex interaction of events. Prediction of future trends in environmental impacts, climate change issues, landscape alterations, health hazards, disease outbreaks, etc. is becoming a hotbed of technology-reinforced research. Artificial intelligence (AI), currently a cutting-edge concept, has the potential to improve the quality of life of human beings. As the field of AI matures with more trained algorithms, the potential of its application in epidemiology, the study of host–pathogen interactions and drug designing and customized medicine has opened new horizons. Precise and advanced diagnosis and cost-effective treatment are some of the biggest goals of AI-based technologies. Similarly, Remote sensing-geographical information systems (RS-GIS) coupled with AI, are contributing immensely to the field of agriculture, predicting seasons, forecasting weather, and increasing output. Moreover, the use of AI through machine learning (ML) and deep-learning-based applications is approaching complex dynamics of the body for example cognitive neuroscience. Collectively we can say, that the coming days are going to be an interdisciplinary confluence of multiple scientific avenues. With this in focus, we are looking forward to creating a forum for discussing these technological interventions in the backdrop of biological sciences in the august presence of all participants.

ANNOUNCEMENT / INVITATION

Department of Zoology (UG & PG), Asutosh college, Kolkata in collaboration with Department of Zoology, Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira, Belur, Howrah is organizing a One-Day National Level Satellite Symposium on Contributions of Remote Sensing - Geographic Information System (RS-GIS) and Artificial Intelligence (AI) on opening new Research Sphere in Biological Sciences.

We cordially invite participants including students and faculty members to kindly register themselves for participation in the said event to be held on Friday, 22nd March 2024, at Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira, Belur, Howrah.

ONLINE REGISTRATION

- Participants are requested to enroll their names by filling up the following Registration Form by clicking the  button
- Participants are requested to make the payment as per the details of the registration fees shared and keep a copy of transaction details in .jpeg or .pdf format
- The proof of E-payment has to be uploaded while filling up the above registration form

OFFLINE REGISTRATION

Offline registration can be done at the SVRC office of Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira in weekdays (Monday to Friday) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. from 5th to 19th March 2024.

Contact Person: Milan Mayra, SVRC Office, RKM Vidyamandira
Mobile: +916291130499

REGISTRATION FEES

Faculty Members - Rs. 600/-

Research Scholars – Rs. 400/-

Student with poster - Rs. 300/-

Student without poster - Rs. 250/-

(Spot Registration shall not be Entertained)

GUIDELINES FOR POSTER PREPARATION

- Participants must mail their posters to zoology.pg@asutoshcollege.in (.pdf format) by 20th March, 2024 via email for evaluation of the posters
- Poster Size: 2 feet (Horizontal) x 3 feet (Vertical)
- Participants are requested to carry a printout of their poster (2 feet × 3 feet) for display during the poster presentation session
- Poster Language: English

N.B.:

- Five (05) best poster presentations shall be rewarded for their outstanding contributions
- Participants are kindly requested to carry a valid Photo ID proof

DR. ARIJIT BHATTACHARYA

Associate Professor

Department of Biological Sciences

School of Life Sc. and Biotechnology, Adamas University, Kolkata

TOPIC: Application of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in Drug Designing and Vaccine Development

DR. BHEEM DUTT JOSHI

Scientist C

Wildlife Section

Zoological Survey of India, Kolkata

TOPIC: GIS strategies for effective biodiversity conservation and monitoring:
Integrating spatial representation with biomolecules and movement Patterns

DR. DIBYENDU DUTTA

Former General Manager and Group Director

NRSC

ISRO, Govt. of India

TOPIC: Application of geoinformatics in biological research and recent advancements.

PROGRAMME SCHEDULE

SESSION	EVENTS	TIMINGS
Registration	Kit Delivery and High Tea	10:00 am
Session 1	Vedic Chanting by students of RKM Vidyamandira	10:30 am
	Inaugural Welcome Address by Swami Mahaprajnananda, Principal, RKM Vidyamandira & Felicitation of our Distinguished Delegates	10:40 – 11:00 am
Session 2	First Speaker ~ Dr. Dibyendu Dutta, Former General Manager and Group Director, NRSC (ISRO, Govt of India) Topic: Application of Geoinformatics in Biological Research and Recent Advancements Session Chairperson: Dr. Subir Chandra Dasgupta, Former - Professor, Department of Zoology, Maulana Azad College, W.B.S.E.S	11:00 – 11:55 am
Session 3	Second Speaker ~ Dr. Arijit Bhattacharjee, Associate Professor, Dept. of Biological Sciences, School of Life Sc. and Biotechnology, Adamas University Topic: Application of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in Drug Designing and Vaccine Development Session Chairperson: Dr. Subir Chandra Dasgupta, Former - Professor, Department of Zoology, Maulana Azad College, W.B.S.E.S.	12:00 – 12:55 pm
Session 4	Third Speaker ~ Dr. Bheem Dutt Joshi, Scientist C, Wildlife Section, Zoological Survey of India Topic: GIS strategies for effective biodiversity conservation and monitoring: Integrating spatial representation with biomolecules and movement Patterns Session Chairperson: Prof. (Dr.) Sumit Home Chaudhuri Professor, Department of Zoology, University of Calcutta	1:00 – 1:55 pm
Session 5	Poster Presentation and Interactive Lunch	2:00 – 4:30 pm
Valedictory	Announcement for Best Poster Presentations Special Guest: Dr. Manas Kabi, Principal, Asutosh College	4:30 – 5:00 pm
