- BRIEF REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT/ PROGRAMME:

On January 23, 2024, Asutosh College joyously commemorated the Birth Anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose on the college rooftop. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff members alike. A heartfelt floral tribute was offered by both teaching and non-teaching personnel, along with students.

The invaluable contribution of Netaji to India's struggle for independence was passionately discussed by esteemed faculty members, Smt. Mousumi Roy of Sociology department, and Smt. Sneha Dutta of BBA Department. Additionally, the General Secretary of the students' union, Radhe Shyam Gayen, delivered an inspiring speech, reflecting on the significance of the occasion.

The ceremony further included the unfurling of the national flag and soul-stirring renditions of patriotic songs by both students and teachers, resonating with the spirit of unity and love for the motherland.

➤ EXPECTED OUTCOME:

Such commemorations have the potential to cultivate a deep sense of national pride among participants, motivating them to make constructive contributions to society. By reflecting on the sacrifices and achievements of our freedom fighters, individuals are encouraged to recognize their own capacity to effect positive change. These events serve as powerful reminders that, like those who fought for independence, each person has the ability to leave a lasting impact on the world.
